

2021 NWSL Draft (rev. 1/5/2021)

1. Overview

a. Eligible Players. Teams may draft players in the annual NWSL Draft who either (i) who have registered for the Draft and been vetted as meeting the eligibility requirements by the League, or (ii) are “Seniors” at a NCAA or NAIA member institution. As used herein, a “Senior” means a student-athlete who has exhausted three (3) years of intercollegiate soccer eligibility prior to the 2020-2021 academic year; if there is any question as to whether a player is a “Senior”, the League’s determination is final. A Senior who has registered and met the eligibility requirements as determined by the league is entered in the 2021 NWSL Draft through the mechanism in Section 1(a)(i).

b. NWSL Draft Order. The natural Draft order for the 2021 NWSL Draft is set by taking the reverse order of the Team standings of the 2020 Challenge Cup preliminary stage, with new expansion Teams (if any) at the top of the order, and with Orlando being placed randomly. In the event that Teams are tied, the tie-breaking mechanism shall be as outlined in the Competition Manual.

2. Draft Process and Draft Day Procedures

a. The NWSL Draft will consist of a maximum of forty (40) selections made over four (4) rounds.

b. Teams will select #1-10 (or “pass”) for all rounds based on the current order until the Draft is completed. For round 1, each Team will have five (5) minutes to announce its pick. For rounds 2, 3 and 4, each Team will have three (3) minutes to announce its pick.

c. To make a selection, each Team must notify the League via the zoom call of its selection prior to the clock expiring and the League will announce the selection.

d. Each Team may request one 5-minute time-out per round for further discussion, rule clarification, or trade discussion. Time-outs may not be “stacked” by Teams; that is, Team B may not use its time-out immediately following Team A’s use of its time-out. Example: Team A has been granted its five-minute time-out to discuss a trade with Team B. The discussion must be completed within the five minutes; Team B may not use its time-out in order to complete the discussion or trade. At the end of the five minutes, a Team selection must be made.

e. Teams that are unable to deliver their selection and fail to indicate a “pass” at the end of the selection clock time will be automatically assigned a Team time-out by the League Office, provided a Team time-out is available. If a time-out is not available and a Team fails to make or pass its selection in the allotted time, it forfeits its selection for the round.

f. There will be a ten (10) minute break after the first round, and a two (2) minute organizational break between each subsequent round.

g. Trades must be approved by the League before they are official and announced to the public. No player names will be made public until they can be notified of the trade by their Team. The phrase “a player to be named later” will be used in those instances when a player name cannot be announced per these rules.

h. The League may call a time-out at any time to resolve a procedural issue or for any other reason in its discretion.

3. Drafted Players

a. Protected Period. The rights to any players selected in the NWSL Draft shall be assigned to the drafting Team’s College Protected List immediately following the Draft until the start of the 2022 NWSL preseason (the “Protected Period”), except as noted below. Rights to players on a Team’s College Protected List are assets of the Team and may be kept, waived or traded, at the Team’s discretion during the Protected Period. If waived, and not picked up off waivers by another Team, the player becomes discovery eligible. Rights to players on a Team’s College Protected List who have not been waived or offered an SPA at the end of the Protected Period shall be waived.

b. Standard Player Agreement. A player on a drafting Team's College Protected List is not on the Team's Roster and may not play for the Team unless and until she is offered and signs a SPA. If a player is drafted by a Team in the Draft and the Team wants to add that player to its roster, the League will attempt to sign the player to a Standard Player Agreement (SPA). There is no guarantee that a drafted player will be offered or will agree to sign a SPA with NWSL. Once a drafted player signs a SPA, NWSL will assign the player to such Team. If a player is offered a SPA during the Protected Period but does not sign it, she shall remain on her drafting Team's College Protected List until the beginning of the 2022 NWSL preseason, and then waived.

NOTE: A Team claiming a player off waivers assumes the player's existing contract but may renegotiate with the player, as mutually agreed. If the player does not have a current SPA, the Team claiming the player must submit a PAF within fourteen (14) days or the player will be waived.

4. Undrafted Players

a. Undrafted Players. A player who was eligible for the 2021 NWSL Draft, but is undrafted, will be discovery-eligible on the day following the completion of the 2021 NWSL Draft.
